

Resident Income

|                                 |         |                    |
|---------------------------------|---------|--------------------|
| Social Security                 |         |                    |
| VA                              |         |                    |
| Pension                         |         |                    |
| Interest income                 |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
| Total Income                    |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
| Medicare supplementIns cost |         |                    |
| Drug plan Ins cost              |         | Any amt over $32. |
| Personal allowance              | $30.00 |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
| Life Insurance prem             | $0.00  | no allowance       |
| House payment                   | $0.00  | no allowance       |
| House Insurance                 | $0.00  | no allowance       |
| Utilities                       | $0.00  | no allowance       |
| Phone bill                      | $0.00  | no allowance       |
|                                 | $0.00  | no allowance       |
|                                 |         |                    |
| Total allowances                |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |
| Subtract Allow fromIncome   |         |                    |
| To be applied to NH             |         |                    |
|                                 |         |                    |

Total Allowed for Burial $5,000.00

Can be bank account or prepaid funeral contract

Some items are exempt from contract amount.

Must count cash surrender value of Ins.

Term Life Ins does not count against.

Married Couples

(both)

|                                 |            |                        |
|---------------------------------|------------|------------------------|
| Social Security                 |            |                        |
| VA                              |            |                        |
| Pension                         |            |                        |
| Interest income                 |            |                        |
|                                 |            |                        |
| Total Income                    |            |                        |
| Home Spouse keeps               | $2,030.00 | subtract from Income * |
|                                 |            |                        |
| Medicare supplementIns cost |            |                        |
| Drug plan Ins cost              |            | Any amt over $32.     |
| Personal allowance              | $30.00    |                        |
|                                 |            |                        |
|                                 |            |                        |
| Life Insurance prem             | $0.00     | no allowance           |
| House payment                   | $0.00     | no allowance           |
| House Insurance                 | $0.00     | no allowance           |
| Utilities                       | $0.00     | no allowance           |
| Phone bill                      | $0.00     | no allowance           |
|                                 | $0.00     | no allowance           |
|                                 |            |                        |
| Total allowances                |            |                        |
|                                 |            |                        |
| Subtract Allow fromIncome   |            |                        |
| To be applied to NH             |            |                        |
|                                 |            |                        |

* If home spouse's income is more than $2030 they may keep entire amount and the NH spouse will apply their own income on a monthly basis.

If there is a saving(s) account, the home spouse can keep the first $25,000.

